

1. Title of the proceeding: "Utilization of Evidence Based Traditional Medicine in Health Care".
2. Author :-
Editing board:
 - 2.1. Advising board: Dr. Endang Sedyaningsih, Dr.PH, Minister of Health of the Republic of Indonesia.
 - 2.2. Editors: Dr. Trihono, Head of NIHRD, MoH, Republic of Indonesia.
 - 2.3. Team Members:
 - Dr. Siswanto, MPH., DTM. (Head of National Commission on Scientification of Djamoeh, Indonesia)
 - Dr. Erni Hernawati Porwaningsih, Indonesia.
 - Dr. Prijo Sidipratomo Ap.Rad. (K) (IMA)
 - Prof. Dachriyanus (IAI)
 - Dr. dr. Nyoman Kertia (SP3T, DIY)
 - Representative from health centers that provide traditional medicine services.
 - Representative from SP3T
 - Representative from university/faculty of TM (Unair, UI).
 - Collegium/professional body (IDI, IDGI, IAI)
 - Directorate General of IPR, Ministry of Law and Human Rights.
 - The Indonesian Institutes of Sciences
 - Indonesia Herb Association
 - National Committee on Jamu Scientification.
3. Language: English
4. Proceeding name: Third Conference on Traditional Medicine in ASEAN Countries
5. Date: 31st October 2011 – 2nd November 2011
6. Place held: Sunan Hotel Solo, Indonesia
7. Keywords: Traditional medicine, ASEAN countries, Nippon Foundation and another possible keyword is health care.
8. Session:
FIRST DAY
 - A. Opening ceremony:
 - A.1. Welcome remark by Dr. Trihono (The Head of NIHRD)
 - A.2. Remark by Dr. Makarim Wibisono (Executive Director of the ASEAN Foundation).
 - A.3. Remark by Mr. Yuji Mori (Director of International Program Department of NIPPON Foundation).
 - A.4. Video recorded remark by Dr. Surin Pitsumman (Secretary General of ASEAN)
 - A.5. Key speech and officially open the conference by Dr. Endang Sedyaningsih, MPH., DR.PH. (Minister of Health of the Republic of Indonesia)
Topic of the minister speech was "Integration of Traditional Medicine into National Health Care System". Overview of the speech:
 - Why traditional medicine matters?
 - Challenges of traditional medicine

- Global and regional commitment
- Integrating traditional medicine into health care system
- Indonesia's experience

B. Plenary Session:

This session was chaired by Bahdar Hamid (Indonesia) as chairman and Shamsaini (Malaysia) as co-chairman.

B.1. Presentation 1

“Review on the Implementation of Traditional Medicine at Community Level and Primary Health Care in The WHO SEARO” by Dr. Kin Shein (Technical Advisor WHO SEARO).

B.2. Presentation 2

“Traditional Medicine and Primary Health Care” by Dr. Naratunya Samdan (Regional Advisor WHO WPRO)

B.3. Presentation 3

“Overview ASEAN Cooperation on TM” by Dr. Ferdinando (Assistant Director Health and Communicable Disease Division).

B.4. Country Report 2011 by 10 AMS

1. Brunei Darussalam:

Country report on traditional/complementary and alternative medicine (T/CAM=TM/CAM).

2. Cambodia

Achievement & Evaluation of TM in Cambodia.

3. Indonesia

Country report 2011. The Utilization of Evidence Based Traditional Medicine in the Health Care, a Breakthrough Model to Synergize and Integrate JAMU in the Health Care.

Country report 2010. Utilization of Evidence Based Traditional Medicine in the Health Care: Towards Feasible Models in the ASEAN Countries.

4. Lao People's Democratic Republic

Development of Traditional Medicine in Lao PDR.

5. Philippine

Uphold the right of every Filipino to better health through the provision of safe, beneficial, affordable and culturally-acceptable traditional and alternative health care products, service and technologies.

6. Singapore

Development of Traditional Chinese Medicine in Singapore.

7. Thailand

The progress of integration of Thai Traditional Medicine in the national health care system.

8. Vietnam

Evidence Based Traditional Medicine in Vietnam Health Care

- C. Panel Discussion
 - C.1. Integration of TM into National Health Care System by Dr. Aung Mynt, Myanmar.
 - C.2. Sharing the Experiences of Nippon Foundation Project by Dr. Omehai Pinyopornpanich (DG of Health Service Support MoPH of Thailand).
 - C.3. The Role of Medicinal Association in Supporting TM by Dr. Prijo Sidipratomo Sp.Rad (K) (IMA).
 - C.4. The Role of IAI in Supporting Indonesia TM by Dachryanus.
 - C.5. The Experience of Dr. Sardjito Hospital in Implementing TM by Dr. Nyoman Kertia (SP3T, DIY).

- D. Opening ASEAN Roadmap on Integrating TM into Health Care System
 - Presentation of the 1st Draft of the ASEAN Roadmap on Integration of TM/CAM (Indonesia & Thailand).

SECOND DAY

On the second day, it was conducted Group Discussion.

- A. Group Discussion 1. Facilitation of Exchange of Information on Research Results in Safety, Efficacy and Quality of Herbal and Traditional Medicine among AMS. (Chair: Dr. Zakiah).
- B. Group Discussion 2. Promotion of the use of Traditional Medicine (Herbal Medicines and Modality) in the Primary Health Care. (Chair: Anchalee Chatuputi).
- C. Group Discussion 3. Strengthening of Traditional Medicine Knowledge of the Health Care Personnel Through Training and Education (Chair: Prof. Dr. Than Maung)
- D. Group Discussion 4. Strengthening Capacity of AMS to Conduct Research on Safety, Efficacy and Quality of Traditional Medicine (Chair: Dr. Siswanto).